

I am writing to let you know that I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law on Telephone Privacy. It is my hope that Indiana residents are more important to the government than the companies with which we do business. Thank you.